Volume 53 No. 2

“AAUW advances equity for all women and girls through advocacy, education and research. AAUW will be a powerful advocate and visible leader in equity and education through research, philanthropy, and measurable change in critical areas impacting the lives of women and girls.”

Voting: The Foundation of Democracy

Wednesday, October 25, 2023
Waterford Public Library

6:15 p.m. Refreshments
6:45 p.m. Business Meeting
7:00 p.m. Program

The October program will feature Joanne Moore: President of the LWV SECT and co-president of the LWV CT. Her main focus in the League has to do with Voter Services. In that capacity, she provides voter education, voter registration, and manages candidate debates.

The League of Women Voters is 102 years old. It is nonpartisan and does not endorse candidates or parties. But they do study issues and take stands on issues especially legislation that protects voter rights and election safety. And they take stands on issues like the environment and gun control.

Joanne lives in East Lyme, is a retired physical therapist, and a member of the Soroptimist Club.

New London Branch AAUW Meeting Minutes September 27, 2023

The meeting was called to order at 6:45 pm. Members were welcomed to the new year for our branch of AAUW. Gale thanked the Program Committee, Judy Acker, Kim Blake, Elizabeth Hume, Jeanne O'Connell, Linda Shailor and Siri Belgum for their help in keeping the branch going. They met several times over the summer and planned things a little differently this year based on the survey responses received. In place of regular programs at the library each month some afternoon activities have been planned at different venues. She welcomed one of our new branch members, Rory Wilson who will be guiding us as we create some fall greeting cards. On October 25th Joanne Moore President of League of Women Voters of SECT will talk about Voting: The Foundation of our Democracy. For November we will actually meet at 2:00 pm October 29 at the Niantic Bay Playhouse to see Steel Magnolias. Tickets are limited so if you wish to join us be sure to get your reservation form and check into Jeanne O'Connell by October 2, 2023. For January we will choose an afternoon movie at the Garde which will be followed with a discussion of the movie at a later date TBD. In February and March, we will collaborate with the Waterford Library and April will feature a performance at the Ivoryton Playhouse.

We continue to work without a President this year and will need all of your help to make this work. Please help us promote our activities and recruit new members.

The next issue of our newsletter will cover October and November. Information you would like included should be sent to Gale ASAP.

Membership: Jeanne O'Connell reported 20 members have renewed plus the 5 life members of the branch bringing the total to 25. She paid the insurance for the year and has forwarded all memberships to National. The budget will support the programs planned for this year with funds set aside for a scholarship.

Book Group: Elizabeth Hume reported on the books for the book group. She also asked for volunteers to bring refreshments in October.

There being no further business, the meeting adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,
Linda Shailor

News and Views is published 5 times a year by AAUW and sent to members of the New London Branch. Editor: Gale Bradbury 12 Heritage Drive, Stonington, Ct. 06378, email: gbradbury292@gmail.com. The deadline for submissions is the third Thursday of the month. Branch President: Vacant Membership VP: Kim Blake, kajblake@gmail.com

September Meeting

Members had an enjoyable evening in September as branch member Rory Wilson guided them in the creation of fall greeting cards. They learned to draw a design for the Halloween card, how to stamp a Thanksgiving design to color and create colorful ornaments for a Christmas card. Fall themed papers, colorful pencils, glitter pens and glue were all used to add a finishing touch to the cards

Holiday Luncheon

Mark your calendar now for the holiday luncheon that will take place on Saturday, December 9 at Langley's. Meal choices will include Chicken Marsala, Braised
